A Spartan in Kansas.

The numerous of Mr. J. H. BLASSIN-GAME in the district will be pleased to learn by the following carneral, which cary be instructed to report, at as early a we clip from the Squatter Sourcign, pubhis prosperity in his new home:

"We notice our young friend Blassingame, of Burnes & Bros' store, has been loing a heavy retail lusiness during the past week. It is no wonder. Pesides being the cleverest man in town, he keeps the cheanest goods."

The Sovereign is right. Blasingame one of the cleverest of men, not in Atelison only, but anywhe e, both in the American and English acceptation of the the term. But more than all this, he is a true Southern gentleman of the Carolina stamp. And right sure we are that he will be one of the foremest to protect and advance Southern interests under any and all circumstances. We can wish the new Territory of Kansas no better properity than that it may have many sur citizens,-South Carolina Sourtan.
